Personal poem experience

"..I keep to myself the things that are meant to be said swallowed the mute icon and it's been on my throat ever since.."

Personal poem experience

"..cause with online classes, i'd flinch if i heard anything close to my name, but with online classes, i've built new walls made out of static screens. "

"..cause with online classes, i wasted band-aids to cover the camera of my laptop, but with online classes, my wounds stayed open for hours to no end."

Personal poem experience

"..hypnotized with a loading circle that never gets filled. the black mirror of my screen reflecting anxious eyes and trembling lips, can you see me better now? can you hear me clear? it says "Hold on! We're trying to reconnect!", but with online classes, it's been saying that for awhile and i keep starring at myself. "
